

Eileen
Cardile

Executive Vice President, Inspira Health Network; President/CEO, Inspira Medical Center Woodbury

Cardile has enjoyed more than four decades of work in the health care field, beginning her career as a staff nurse in the surgical intensive care at the University of Pennsylvania. "From an early age, I knew I wanted to be a nurse," she says. Her career has included leadership and academic teaching positions within nursing. In 2006, she was appointed president and CEO of Underwood-Memorial Hospital in Woodbury. During her tenure, she led the organization to the November 2012 completion of the merger of Underwood-Memorial Hospital with South Jersey Healthcare.

"I believe I owe far more to society than I ever expect to receive," says Cardile, wife, mother of three and grandmother to five. In 2011, Cardile received the Volunteer Leadership Award from the United Way of Gloucester County, where she served on the board for more than 25 years. In 2013, she was selected as Business Person of the Year by the Gloucester County Chamber of Commerce. Currently, she sits on the Executive Leadership Council of St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia and serves on a task force to develop the first Women's Center on the campus.

Patricia Claybrook

President/CEO,
Jidan Cleaning, LLC

Claybrook's family immigrated here from Trinidad when she was 6. Inspired by her father's hard work ethic, she turned the dream of owning her own business into a reality when she opened Jidan Cleaning in 2005 in Medford. Claybrook applied her 20 years of sales and marketing experience into a company that prides itself on delivering consistency and the highest standard of quality. "To be a successful entrepreneur, the journey is not a sprint but a marathon," she says.

A full-service commercial and residential cleaning company, Jidan has been honored with multiple awards including the Minority Supplier of the Year from the Pennsylvania-New Jersey-Delaware Minority Supplier Development Council and the New Jersey Small Business Development Centers' Small Business Growth Success Award.

Stacey J.
Sinclair

COO/Litigation Partner,
Archer & Greiner, PC

Sinclair is chief operating officer as well as partner and shareholder of Archer & Greiner, one of the five largest law firms in New Jersey. As a top operational executive and practicing attorney in their Haddonfield office, Sinclair is known for excelling at providing solutions to both legal and administrative challenges, as well as specializing in environmental issues. In addition to litigation, she offers guidance regarding environmental cleanup, soil and groundwater contamination, damages to natural resources, and cost recovery. "One of the best pieces of advice I ever received ... was to become integral to any project I really cared about," says Sinclair.

In addition to being the mother of three, Sinclair volunteers for the Children's Ministry at her church and has enjoyed supporting her local Girl Scout and Cub Scout programs.

Lynn Ozer

SBA President, Susquehanna Bank

As president of SBA/Government Guaranteed Lending, Ozer manages all of the SBA lending for an $18 million bank, covering four states and 261 office locations. She has been nationally recognized with multiple awards for excellence, service and advocacy in her field. In 2011, she became the first elected female chair of the National Association of Government Guaranteed Lenders.

Ozer holds several chair positions on various boards and takes time to mentor and present to small businesses at civic groups and entrepreneurial forums. She has received the Philadelphia District's Crystal Award, the NAGGL's Distinguished Service Award and the SBA's Financial Services Advocate Award. In 2008, she received the Volunteer of the Year Award for her many philanthropic contributions. She identifies her family as her biggest source of pride, saying, "Together with my husband, [we raised] two incredibly capable children while we both worked full time."
